TRAGIC ENDING TO ROMANCE.

Young Medical Student Kills Himself By Fiancee's Dead Body.

Paris, Jan. 28.—A tragic ending to a romance of two young French people of good family occurred at Nice when M. Georges Hucher, a medical student, and the son of a well known official of one of the government offices, killed himself at the bedside of his dead fiancee, Mlle. Juliette de Raymond.

Mlle. de Raymond had been under treatment at the private hospital of Dr. Poirier, in Paris, where M. Hucher was an assistant. The student fell in love with her, but his parents would not hear of a marriage owing to the girl's delicate state of health.

The pair finally eloped. They went to Nice, where they took a beautiful ground-floor flat, with a large garden overlooking the Promenade des Anglais, and M. Hucher hoped that the warmth of the climate would cure his sweetheart and enable them to marry. But Mlle. de Raymond grew worse, and died in her lover's arms.

Hucher was frantic with grief. He stripped the garden of all its flowers consisting of roses, arum lilies and white lilac, and ordered large quantities from Nice. He went into the bedroom where his fiancee was lying, and covered her with the flowers until the bed was one large floral bank.

Then he stretched himself at the girl's feet and shot himself through the head.

FIRED BULLET IN BRAIN.

Quitman, Ga., People Shocked Over Suicide of Miss Clyde Porter.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 28.—The people of Quitman were greatly shocked Sunday morning when they learned that Miss Clyde Porter had committed suicide.

Her dead body was discovered about 8 o'clock by Mrs. L. E. Barton, with whom she boarded, when the latter went to call her for breakfast. Death was caused by a pistol shot in the right temple, the ball passing through the head, and death is supposed to have been instantaneous. The weapon used was a 38 caliber pistol and was found lying on the blood-stained pillow.

It is not known when Miss Porter fired the fatal shot, but it is thought to have been early in the morning. As yet no cause has been found for the act, although it is said by Miss Porter's intimate friends that she had been very despondent for several weeks and had threatened to kill herself upon several occasions.

The remains were sent to Montgomery, Ala., for interment. Miss Parker was a member of a prominent Montgomery family.

A NOTABLE WEDDING

Hungarian Count Leads to Altar Daughter of Vanderbilts.

DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT

Many of New York's Most Prominent Society People Were Guests—Wedding Chorus Sung By Thirty Boys of St. Patrick's Chancel Choir.

New York, Jan. 28.—The wedding of Miss Gladys Moore Vanderbilt, the daughter of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, to Count Laszlo Szechenyi, member of the Hungarian nobility, lieutenant of huzzars and heriditary member of the Austro-Hungarian parliament, took place at the Fifth Avenue home of the bride's mother soon after noon Monday.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of about 350 guests in the salon on the Fifth avenue side of the Vanderbilt residence. At one end of the long room an altar was placed under a bower of bending palm trees, the tops of which came together forming an arch under which the bridal party proceeded to the altar. About the trunks of the palms were twined thousands of orchids.

Miss Vanderbilt was accompanied to the altar by her elder brother, Cornelius Vanderbilt, and the count was accompanied by his best man, Count Antono Sigray. The wedding ceremony was performed by Mgr. M. J. Lavelle, rector of St. Patrick's cathedral, assisted by the Rev. John J. Byrne. The wedding chorus from Gaul's cantata "Ruth," was sung by thirty boys of the St. Patrick's chancel choir.

Bride's Dress.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin with embroidery, point lace and garlands of orange blossoms. Her veil was of point lace caught with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a shower boquet of orchids and gardenias. The bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Vanderbilt Twombly, her cousin, and Miss Dorothy Whitney, daughter of William C. Whitney. The bride was also attended by her little niece, Miss Florel Payne Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney.

Among the ushers were Count Stefan Szecheny and Count Paul Esterhazy. Among the guests were Baron Hengelmuller von Hengervar, the Austrian ambassador to the United States, and his wife, and Alfred and Reginald Vanderbilt, brothers of the bride.

Many of the most prominent members of New York society were among the guests, while outside the Vanderbilt residence a great crowd of the curious public thronged the sidewalk and street.

Wedding Breakfast Served.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, the guests being distributed at various tables throughout the house. All through the rooms were beautifully decorated with palms and orchids.

The Count and Countess Szechenyi will go to Newport to remain for a week at the home of Reginald Vanderbilt.

Penalties Total $990,000.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 28.—Attorneys for the Iron Mountain railroad have filed a petition in the federal court for an injunction restraining the Arkansas railroad commission from assisting in, or ordering suits against the railroad company for a legal discrimination in furnishing cars to the Western Coal and Mining company, at Shadra, Ark., to collect statutory penalties amounting to $990,000. The case will be heard February 4.

Milner Enters the Race.

Cartersville, Ga., Jan. 28.—Thomas C. Milner, a prominent lawyer of the Cartersville bar, has announced his candidacy for solicitor general of the Cherokee circuit. He will oppose Hon. Sam P. Maddox, the present incumbent, who has held the office for the last twelve years. Judge A. W. Fite, presiding judge of the Cherokee circuit, will be a candidate for re-election.

END DRAWS NEAR.

Harry Thaw Will Probably Know His Fate Before End of Week.

New York, Jan. 28.—The fourth and probably the last week of the trial of Harry K. Thaw, charged with the murder of Stanford White, began Monday.

In spite of the fact that the first trial required twelve weeks, the present one will, it is thought, be ended in one-third of that time.

Much evidence introduced at the first trial has been eliminated this time, and with each side knowing what every witness would testify the examination of witnesses was much easier and much shorter.

Monday the defense called to the stand four or five doctors and nurses from Europe, who attended Thaw during spells of illness there, and then insanity experts were called who endeavored to read the hypothetical questions which Littleton had prepared, and which is said to contain some 15,000 words. To this question the alienists will reply that in their opinion Thaw was, when he killed White, incapable of knowing the nature or quality of his act or that the act was wrong, the legal definition of such insanity as excuses one from punishment for a crime. Mr. Littleton has stated that he believed the case would be completed before the end of the week.

District Attorney Jerome has not indicated what witnesses he will call in rebuttal or what attempt he will make to combat the insanity defense which has been set up. It is not believed however, that the rebuttal will occupy any great amount of time.

ATTEMPT TO ROB ARMORY.

San Francisco, Calif., Jan. 28.—The Call Monday says: Bullets, fired with deadly intent by national guard sharpshooters early Sunday, frustrated a second attempt to rob the armory of companies K and M, Fifth infantry of the national guard. In the building, which is located at Buchanan and Walter streets, are kept valuable military maps of San Francisco's coast defenses and topographical plans of the peninsula.

That the attack on the building was not a burglar's ordinary operation seems apparent from the persistency of the mysterious visitors.

Early Saturday morning and again in the darkness of Sunday morning two men tried to gain an entrance into the premises.

The authorities are working on the theory that Japanese spies were seeking to gain entrance into the secrets of the armory.

Mills Resume Work.

Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 28—Two more big open hearth furnaces resumed operations here Monday, while the 19-inch and 28-inch rolling mill departments at the Eastern Steel company's mills also started up full handed. On Tuesday the 12-inch mill will resume. Thirty-eight collieries of the Reading Coal and Iron company, employing 30,000 men, who have been idle since January 23, also went to work, while one thousand men at the same company's repair shops resumed on reduced hours.

Comer May Make Race.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 28.—A close friend of Governor Comer is quoted as saying that the governor is not out of the race for the United States senate next time by his declaration that he will serve out his full term of three years yet. He will have plenty of time after the expiration of his term to get over the year limit of the constitution and then make the effort to defeat J. H. Bankhead. This declaration comes from a source that makes it very certain that Governor Comer will make the race.

Suicide at Natchez.

Natchez, Miss., Jan. 28.—Charles V. Patterson, 40 years of age, junior member of Chamberlain & Patterson company, retail dry goods, was found asphyxiated in a room over the kitchen in his residence. When found the gas was turned on, and the gas tube had been twisted around his neck with the tip near his mouth. No cause is known for the suicide.

1 KILLED, SCORE HURT

Fire Loss of Half Million Dollars Sustained at Chicago.

STRONG GALE AIDED FLAMES

Mayer Building and the Hotel Florence Devastated by Flames—Guests of the Hotel Fled to Street Scantily Clad—Fire Finally Controlled.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—One fireman is supposed to have been killed, more than a score of others were injured and property valued at half a million dollars was destroyed in a fire which devastated the Mayer building, a seven story structure, and the Hotel Florence, at 163-167 Adams street, early Monday morning.

The fire broke out in the basement of the Mayer building and spread so rapidly that when the first detachment of firemen arrived the entire building was in flames. A strong north wind swept the flames to the adjacent hotel building and in a short time the latter building was also a roaring furnace.

The frames and roofs of both buildings collapsed an hour later, carrying with them an entire company of firemen. All except one, James Gallagher, of truck company No. 1, escaped. His body is believed to be in the ruins.

Many of the guests of the hotel were scantily clad when they reached the street. The refugees were cared for by the police.

Despite the threatening nature of the fire, hard work by the firemen confined it to the two structures. The fire called for the entire department of down town companies and the wholesale district company, and the men swarmed upon the roofs and fire escapes of an adjoining structure, pouring tons of water upon the flames from their vantage points.

Two hours after the first alarm had sounded, the flames were under control.

PORTLAND, ME., SUFFERS.

For Ten Hours Men Fought the Fire. Heavy Financial Loss.

Portland, Me., Jan. 28—Fire which several times threatened to wipe out the business section of this city, and which caused damage estimated at over half a million dollars, was kept confined to the block in which it started Monday morning, after almost ten hours' fighting by Portland firemen, aided by men and apparatus from several outside cities.

The fire started in the wholesale dry goods house of Millen, Cousins & Co., and it was in their half of the building that the greater part of the loss was sustained.

Later, when the fire was thought to be under control, the other half of the building, occupied by A. F. Cox & Sons, was invaded by the flames which had made their way through the roof and a party-wall simultaneously, and the $250,000 stock of boots and shoes was ruined.

A remarkable feature of the fire was the entire absence of casualties. One narrow escape is recorded, which, had sufficient warning not been given, might have resulted seriously for some eight or ten men in immediate danger of a wall falling.

The fire assumed such proportions that Mayor Leighton called for help from ten cities in Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine.

Federal Court at Augusta.

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 28.—The adjourned November term of the United States court will convene here February 3 with Judge Emory Speer, presiding. Many important cases are to be tried, including those of several well known liquor men for failing to comply with federal regulations, prior to Jan. 1.

Water Main Bursts; $100,000 Damage.

A ROUSING MEETING OF COUNTY UNION

J. E. Fugate of Alachua Elected President.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM MANIFESTED

New President Makes Good Speech of Acceptance—A Feast Prepared by Good Ladies of the West End Which Was Fit for the Gods.

Bell, Jan. 28.—One of the most enthusiastic meetings of the County Union of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America ever held in Alachua county was held with Jaxville Local, three miles southeast of Bell, there being over 500 people present.

First on the program was the installation of officers, the same being public, and the house could not hold the crowd. The first to be installed was our new county president, J. E. Fugate, who spoke to the officers and members as follows:

"Brothers, I thank you for the high compliment paid me in placing me in the highest position within the gift of our great order, and ask your indulgence in any mistakes that I might make and assure you that such mistakes will be from the head and not from the heart. It will be my earnest endeavor to carry on this great work and build up Alachua County Union until it stands ahead of all other county unions in the State, and I ask not only the help of my fellow officers, but the earnest co-operation of every member in the county. Without your help I will be as helpless to carry on this great work as an infant babe upon its mother's breast.

"Let us so live and conduct our lives that our union will stand out conspicuously to the world as a guarantee for honesty, friendship and brotherly love.

"Brothers, let's every one of us right here make a new resolve to enter into this great work with a determination to build up this great union as it has never been built up before, and let's commence right here by cultivating more friendship and brotherly love.

"Oh, what a difference some friend has made in the lives of most of us. How many men and women have been kept from suicide by the thought that someone loved them, believed in them! How many have preferred to suffer tortures to dishonoring or disappointing their friends! The thrill of encouragement which has come from the pressure of a friendly hand or an encouraging word has proved the turning point in many a life. So now to you, brother officers, I say, as we are about to enter upon the duties of our offices, let's enter upon them with a vim and an energy that will accomplish something, so that the confidence and trust our brothers and friends have placed in us will not be regretted by them. Many a man endures hardships and suffers privations and criticisms in the hope of winning at last for the sake of his friends, of those who love him, believe in him and see in him what others do not, when if he had only himself to consider he would give up.

"Again I thank you."

Each officer installed made short talks, among the most important of which was that of F. B. Love, county organizer and lecturer, who dwelt upon the short time Alachua county had been organized and how much had been accomplished in that time in the way of organization. He said we must not lose sight of the old officers, as to them was due our success to date, and he was afraid we had not showed our appreciation to them as we ought to have done, especially to our retiring president, Brother Gay, as to him was due most of our success, and that he had borne the brunt of the fight.

The house was then cleared of all but members and delegates, and President Fugate appointed the following committee on credentials: T. A. Gay, M. M. May and J. B. Snyder, and while these were at work we had a good talk from our Brother, County Commissioner J. W. Mathews, on the good of the order.

The committee then made its report, and it being so near the noon hour, President Fugate made a few recommendations for the delegates to take under consideration, of which some of the most important was the reduction of the cotton acreage and raising of more feed crops, thereby producing our cotton free from debt. He said everyone should take their county paper and keep posted on county affairs, all should take their union paper and keep posted on their union, also at least one agricultural paper, and recommended The Southern Ruralist as doing more to educate the farming class on scientific farming than any other paper in the South. Brother Fugate dwelt briefly upon each subject and it was easily observed that he had the audience with him in each instance. Adjournment was then taken for dinner.

Mr. Editor, you ought to have been there; such a bounteous spread, prepared by the good ladies of the surrounding country was never before placed before man. If Mr. Speculator ever thought for a moment that he could starve the farmer to death, had he peeped over the table there he would have changed his mind.

After dinner the house was called to order and the newly-elected secretary and treasurer, J. W. Carlisle, having arrived, was installed. Brother Griffin, secretary and treasurer of Jaxville Local, who had been acting as secretary pro tem, was retained as assistant, Brother Carlisle not being well.

The retiring secretary and treasurer having arrived also, Brother G. H. Gibbons and B. D. Weeks were appointed as a committee to audit his books, which they did and reported as follows:

"We, your committee, beg to submit the following report: We find that the secretary and treasurer's books have been kept in a neat and business-like manner and all moneys properly accounted for."

Brothers J. L. Mathis and W. H. Hayes were appointed to entertain the ladies and non-union visitors with talks on good of the order, in the school house nearby.

Business was disposed of in rotation as fast as possible and in a harmonious manner.

During the discussion of a subject on the good of the order the debate waxed warm and enthusiastic.

Brothers Mathis, Love, Hayes, Parkhill and Fugate made some of the most enthusiastic speeches ever made in Alachua County Union since it was organized.

Brother Hayes won with flying colors, his motion having been carried 22 to 11. The meeting then adjourned subject to call of the president.

Everyone was loth to leave such kind hospitality as their West End brothers showed them.

...AMUSEMENTS...

At the Opera House.

Prof. Hemstreet, the mind-reader and hypnotist, closed a two-nights' engagement in this city last night. The opera house was well-filled and the audience seemed highly pleased with the entertainment. The Professor used as his subjects about a dozen of the young men of the city, and during the course of the evening succeeded in convincing the audience that he was an adept in his profession.

The Dandy Dixie Minstrels.

This is a real colored minstrel variety show. It is the real thing, and has set a standard for Simon pure, old-time negro minstrelsy that puts it in a class by itself. It has no competitors, for it is absolutely alone, unequalled and unrivaled, and this expression is shared by the dramatic writers in all the cities where the Dandy Dixie Minstrels have thus far presented their inimitable performance. The New York Herald, for instance, declares that it is unquestionably the best negro minstrel ever seen in this country; The New Orleans Picayune declares that it is the very best colored minstrel organization that has ever appeared in the Crescent City. The Dallas Daily Times-Herald, in reviewing the first performance in that city, said: "The house was packed, the applause was vociferous from the start. All the old-time darkey songs were sung and all the old-time darky dances with new-time frills were given by the light stepping sons of Africanus. Burnt-cork minstrelsy is all right, but these minstrels, who were made black by the brush of nature, are close to first place as amusement and fun creators."

The Dandy Dixie Minstrels will appear at the opera house in Gainesville next Saturday night, February 1.

DIRECT UPON STOMACH.

Possibility of Administering Local Treatment to That Organ.

After a series of experiments covering a period of many years, a well-known specialist in stomach disorders discovered that to administer local treatment to the stomach was a possibility.

As a result of his study of the diseases of digestion and nutrition, he prepared a prescription called Mi-o-na stomach tablets that act directly upon the stomach and bowels, increasing their strength and power to digest whatever food is eaten.

Headaches, giddiness, palpitations, heartburn, sleeplessness, flatulence, bad taste in the mouth, irritability, drowsiness, coated tongue and full feeling after eating are results of indigestion and cured by Mi-o-na.

NG HOME FROM NEWBERRY

he Edge of Town Assassin Slipped p from Behind and Emptied Con- nts of Double-Barrel Shotgun in ack of His Head.

One of the most cowardly assassi- ions every known in the history of chua county occurred on the out- rts of Newberry, in the West End, rtly after dark Monday night, the tim being Elias Sapp, about seventy rs of age, an old and well-known izen of the Jonesville section, ere he has resided on a farm for ny years.

No definite particulars of the kill- could be ascertained, as nothing finite, according to telephone com- unication with The Sun, has yet de- loped.

The body was found in the road ading from Newberry to Jonesville out 7 o'clock Tuesday by passers-by, nd the matter was at once reported the authorities at Newberry.

According to the best information hat could be secured, it appears that Mr. Sapp, whose farm is about three miles east of Newberry, went to New- berry trading Monday. He was rid- ing horseback. Upon arriving in town Mr. Sapp hitched his horse to one of the racks so familiar upon the streets of a country town, and went about his business. It was about dark when he decided to return home, and upon go- ing to the rack where his horse had been left he discovered that the ani- mal was gone.

There was nothing to do but to walk home, consequently Mr. Sapp, according to friends, started out cheer- fully.

When a short distance from New- berry, possibly three hundred yards, some party slipped up behind Mr. Sapp and discharged the contents of a double-barrel shotgun in the back of his head. Death must have been instantaneous, as the head was hor- ribly mutilated when the body was dis- covered.

Notwithstanding the early hour in which this crime was committed, the report of the gun did not seem to alarm the people of the vicinity, as no investigation was apparently made of the same. However, it may be that the constant discharging of firearms in the vicinity has accustomed the people to such reports, and they think nothing of it.

Immediately after being notified of the finding of the body, Coroner E. T. Henderson empanelled a jury, pro- ceeded to the scene and viewed the body. The day was spent in investi- gation, when the jury adjourned until Wednesday morning to complete its investigation.

Deceased was one of the most wide- ly known residents of that section of the county, and was a man well liked by everyone. The murder was not evidently committed for the purpose of robbery, as money and other pos- sessions were found on the person of deceased.

Mr. Sapp was a widower, but is sur- vived by one son, Samuel, and two daughters, Miss Annie Sapp and Mrs. Long.

This tragedy has cast a gloom over the entire community, as deceased was a man of even disposition, clever tem- perament, and was in all regarded as one of the best citizens of the section in which he resided.

CHRONIC COUGHS AND COLDS

Often Lead to More Serious Troubles—Suggestions on Their Treatment.

A prominent New England scientist recently made the statement that nine- tenths of the more serious lung trou- bles, are caused by neglected coughs and colds.

For the benefit of Gainesville people we want to say: Don't dose the stomach with cough syrups, they only soothe a little, upset the stomach, and do not build up the system.

The best remedy is our delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal, healing, body- building elements of cod liver oil, ac- tually extracted from fresh cods' liv- ers but no oil.

Vinol heals and strengthens the sore lungs and bronchial tubes, and re- moves the cause of the cough. Perma- nent health is what you are after. Vinol makes rich red blood, builds up the appetite and creates strength. We ask Gainesville people suffering from chronic coughs, colds, bronchial trou- bles or weak lungs to try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails.— W. M. Johnson, Druggist, Gainesville, Florida.

AN EXCITING EXPERIENCE.

North Gainesville Lady Attacked by Rooster While Feeding Poultry.

Mrs. H. A. Fisher, a well-known and popular lady residing with her family, in North Gainesville, had quite an ex- citing experience at her home a few days ago which she will not soon for- get, as she still bears the scars upon her face as evidence.

This experience was as remarkable as it was exciting, and an incident which has never before been heard of in this section.

Mrs. Fisher, as she is wont to do daily, was engaged in the fowl-yard feeding the poultry, when she was at- tacked by an immense rooster, the dis- pleasure of which she seemed to create. The rooster made a sudden and unexpected attack upon the lady as she was bending over, piercing her face quickly with its sharp spurs in several places, and from the result of which the wounds bled freely.

The wounds were dressed, however, and the lady will suffer no serious results. As a retaliation, however, that rooster is now minus a set of spurs, and in future can do no damage.

Appreciates The Sun.

The Sun is in receipt of a letter from Rev. W. J. Carpenter who for four years was the beloved pastor of the First Methodist church in this city. Mr. Carpenter says: "Be sure and let The Sun come to my address every issue, for I cannot afford to be without the news from dear old Gainesville, the best town in the State. I love its people and am in- terested in all that makes for its pros- perity."

Majority Was 54.

Sam Leonard, who resides in this city but is employed in Ocala, is here for a few days visiting his mother.

Mr. Leonard states that the county commissioners of Marion county have canvassed the vote of the recent "wet" and "dry" election, and declared a a majority of fifty-four in favor of the wets.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

You can avoid pneumonia and other serious results from a cold by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough and expels the cold from the system as it is mildly laxative. Re- fuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. J. W. McCollum & Co.

CUMMER LOG CAMPS HAVE CLOSED DOWN

BIG MILL IS ALSO CLOSED DOWN

Several Hundred Men Thrown Out of Employment, which is Bound to Effect Mercantile Interests of County. Naval Stores Continues.

About the severest blow to this sec- tion that the money panic, which has been on in the North for the past few months, has wrought, was the closing down of all the timber camps in Alachua county owned and controlled by the Cummer Lumber Company. This announcement was made Monday by one of the prominent attaches of the Cummer Company, who stated that the action of the Cummers was due to the lack of orders from Northern concerns, to whom the company had been supplying lumber in large quan- tities.

Not only the timber camps of the Cummer company have been closed in- definitely, but the big sawmill in Jacksonville, which is the largest in the State, has also shut down, pend- ing the receipt of sufficient business to keep the big plant in operation.

By the cessation of these industries, hundreds of men are thrown out of employment, for the present, at least. In the various timber camps of this county, including tramways, etc., there has been employed several hundred men at good salaries, and naturally this will be felt throughout the county.

The mill at Jacksonville also em- ployed a large number of men, who must either seek work elsewhere or wait for an indefinite period upon the reopening of this mill. The capacity of the plant is said to be 150,000 feet per day.

The naval stores department of the Cummer company, which is extensive throughout the West End, will not be effected by the closing down of the timber camps.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Benefits a City Councilman at Kingston, Jamaica.

Mr. W. O'Reilly Fogarty, who is a member of the city council at Kings- ton, Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows: "One bottle of Chamber- lain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trou- ble and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had con- tinued the remedy. That it was bene- ficial and quick in relieving me there is no doubt and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale by all druggists.

A Painful Accident.

Miss Susie Fisher, daughter of our fellow-citizen, H. A. Fisher, had quite a serious fall a few days ago. While walking down the stairs her foot slip- ped, throwing her back on the steps, and for a while rendering her un- conscious.

The fall did not cause any serious results, however, and Miss Fisher is feeling all right again.

Your store is as important as its advertising—never more so, never less so!

The Culpepper revival at Ocala has failed to cause Editors Harris and Bitzinger to "kiss and makeup."

Those who would be wise will take with a grain of salt a good many of the things said to be occurring in politics just now.

A merchant who makes really important price-concessions should not fail to get out of that fact its full advertising possibilities.

The people of Gainesville deeply sympathize with Editor Bob Holly of The Orlando Reporter-Star in the severe illness of his little son.

President Roosevelt seems to have put the lid on over the ambition of reformer Hughes to be the nominee of the Republican party for President.

Will the great fight of 1880 be duplicated and the Roosevelt-Taft cohorts go down as the celebrated Grant legion of 306 were defeated when Garfield was nominated?

That Cleveland judge that called women "cats" and that Richmond professor that says women are inferior to men, must have run up against a queer lot of women.

All efforts of certain politicians to defeat John Stockton for Governor will prove futile. He is one Jacksonville man who the people of the interior are going to stand by.

It is thought that Chairman Fletcher will call the State Democratic Executive Committee together in Jacksonville some time in February. Then the candidates will "get busy."

Subscribers to The Sun will have only themselves to blame if Uncle Sam refuses us permission to continue their subscriptions. Pay up, good people, and enable the publisher to comply with the law.

The Cubans are to take over the government on February 1, next year, and it behooves them to attend strictly to business, for another revolution might compel Uncle Sam to return and never leave again.

If the Democrats had been in power when this panic occurred, we all know, from our experience in 1903-8, what the Republicans would have said, and yet some Democrats are mealy-mouthed about retaliating.

The latest threatened Chinese uprising is because the Government proposes to give some valuable railroad franchises. The uncultured Chinese ought to come to this country and learn how meekly really civilized people put up with that sort of thing.

The administration is at least compelled to admit what everyone suspects, that the Panama Canal will cost nearly double the official estimate. The American people want the canal and are willing to pay what it honestly costs, so why try to fool them with "cooked figures."

RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PANIC.

Have you asked your Republican neighbors how they like this business depression and breakdown of the guaranteed Republican prosperity? If the protective tariff is such a sure cure for hard times and Republican financial policies are necessary to prevent panics, how can they explain present conditions? It is nonsense to say that this was a Wall Street panic, brought on for political purposes, for the financiers who run Wall Street affairs are too smart to ruin themselves, and they have suffered enormously. Panicy conditions have reached the most stable and distant fields. Judge Sinclair of Nebraska, when in Washington a week ago, declared that "the West is well fixed financially. None of the banks in his town was pressed for cash during the recent flurry," but added this Republican authority: "They adopted limited payments, but did not need to do it." Now any bank that adopted "limited payments," which is another way of saying it stopped cash payments, was certainly helping the panic, and making it more distressing and was more to blame than the frenzied financiers of Wall Street who are actually unable to meet the demands of their depositors. It is almost a certainty that those banks at Kearney, Nebraska—for that is the home of the Republican politician who favors the country with his extraordinary statement above quoted—are run by Republicans. Were those Nebraska bankers in league with the New York banks to produce and prolong the panic? If they refused to pay their depositors when they were not "pressed for cash," they committed, if not a crime against the banking laws of the United States, a most despicable outrage against their depositors and the people generally. As the banks generally refused to pay cash to their depositors, were they also in collusion with the New York banks to help indicate to the people that certain policies of the Roosevelt administration were panic breeders? In any event there is no escape for the Republican party, whatever produced the panic. The coming Republican National Convention will endorse Roosevelt and all his doings, it will endorse Republican policies and point with pride to the prosperity of the trusts and corporations as one of the most conspicuous merits of Republican ascendency. But still the glaring fact will have to be explained by our Republican friends why the panic occurred under Republican policies, with all departments of the Government under their full control for the past ten years. What assurance can the Republican party offer that further panics will not follow, if they are again entrusted with power? And with what face can they again declare that Republican policies are "panic proof?"

It is next to impossible to be correct every time, even with the weather bureau of the United States Government. The report sent broadcast that the mercury would dance around the twenty-degree mark on Saturday proved to be erroneous, as the lowest temperature recorded in this section, so far as can be learned, was 28 degrees.

Uncle Sam will remit to China about half of the indemnity incurred for the expense of putting down the Boxer uprising. That is surely most magnanimous, although but a matter of justice and courtesy and is probably unique in the annals of diplomacy.

The political upheaval in Japan is due to finance, reports a dispatch from Tokio. Yes, and a political upheaval is due here if the Republicans don't produce a new stock of prosperity.

THE MORAL LAW.

The Palatka News contains the following excellent editorial which we commend to our readers:

"A young man who acknowledged that he had violated some of the ten commandments, remarked that he 'didn't know why anyone should pretend to keep them simply because they are in the Bible.'

"Of course the words were said either in sheer ignorance or in reckless bravado. But there is a hint in them of a certain kind of loose thinking.

"The ten commandments are not true simply because they are in the Bible. Rather are they in the Bible because they are true. They would be true—and binding—if there were no Bible.

"Moral laws are inherent in things as are physical laws. As certainly as you put your finger in the fire it will be burned. As certainly as you violate a moral law you will suffer. There may be delay, but the punishment is certain. Penalty for sinning logically and naturally and inevitably follows the sin. It is as absolute as that 2 and 2 make 4.

"Take the 'not' out of the items of the decalogue and let us see what we have. Let us say: Thou shalt kill; thou shalt steal; thou shalt commit adultry; thou shalt bear false witness. Do the statements have any more effect than if you say 2 and 2 are 5, or that all the angles of a triangle are not equal to two right angles?

"Suppose you insert the 'not' in one of these commandments and say, thou shalt not honor thy father and mother. Is the assertion of any more effect than if you say a body unsupported will fall upwards?

"Moses is not the author of any moral laws. He simply discovered some of them.

"What men and women of all times need to settle for themselves is that there is an inherent and eternal law of right and wrong, absolutely indestructible, and as invariable as the physical laws of the universe.

"Moral law is not a mere convenience, it is fundamental."

Tariff reform is the prime issue, says former Governor Douglass of Massachusetts, and he further declares that "high protection is the parent of trusts and is responsible for graft and corruption in public and private life." Yet we have a Republican Congress refusing to even consider a reform of such iniquities!

General Gilchrist is without doubt the "busiest" gubernatorial candidate in the field. The General, however, is setting too fast a pace at the start to hold out to the finish.

The book trust has enjoyed a long lease of life in Florida, but the lease will be abrogated by the next Legislature.

Miss Allen is about twenty-three years of age and of most estimable character.

The Pensacola correspondent of The Times-Union says: "What is claimed to be the largest single cargo of naval stores to be sent out from a Gulf port, left here today on the British steamer Craigmore for Hamburg. The shipment was by the American Naval Stores Company, formerly the Shotter Company, and comprised 20,000 barrels of rosin and 4,000 casks of spirits of turpentine. The latter aggregated over 200,000 gallons, and in itself has a valuation of over $100,000. The steamer arrived here about five days ago from Savannah consigned to the company, and within this space of time the immense solid cargo of naval stores was stored, and the steamer cleared and started for sea this afternoon. The total valuation of the cargo is nearly $200,000."

To-day we want to talk to you about "Catarrh cures"

During the past few months we have been publishing what some of our good friends have called "heart-to-heart talks" on patent medicines.

That name suits us all right—"heart-to-heart talks" is just what we have intended. There can't be anything more serious to a sick man or sick woman than his ailment and the remedies he or she takes to cure it.

Our talks have been "heart-to-heart." Every word we have printed has been written in absolute earnestness and sincerity, and judging from what our customers tell us, we have not been talking in vain. We are convinced that our frankness has been appreciated, and that our suggestions have been welcomed—which naturally encourages us to continue.

To-day, and perhaps for some time to come, we want to talk about that big class of remedies known generally as "catarrh cures."

Broadly speaking these are the patent medicines that have been the chief targets for the attacks of the "Ladies' Home Journal," "Collier's Weekly" and other magazines which are waging such a lively warfare against patent medicine abuses.

As we have pointed out in previous talks, it is not our business to pass judgment on the crusade of these well-known, highly-respected publications. The public alone must be the judge and jury. Our business, as we see it, is to carry in stock a complete line of patent medicines, and to sell those medicines at the lowest possible price.

We sell hundreds—yes, thousands of bottles of so-called "catarrh cures," and know nothing of their ingredients. The manufacturers advertise them; the public demands them; we order them from the manufacturers, and sell them at the lowest price. That is absolutely as far as our knowledge goes. The manufacturer keeps his formula a secret. It may be good, or it may not—we don't know, and we have no means of finding out.

Naturally, we would rather sell a remedy that we know is right—that we can back up with all our reputation for honesty and square-dealing.

And wouldn't you rather buy that kind of a remedy? Wouldn't you rather hold us responsible than to hold no one responsible? We are right here, right where you can get at us every day in the week, right where one false move on our part will bring upon us your condemnation, the loss of your friendship, your patronage, your influence. Can we afford to tell you anything that you will learn later is not absolutely true?

Are you not safer in taking our word for the merits of an article, than you are to rely on the printed statement of a patent medicine manufacturer, whom you never even saw and probably never will?

Common sense most emphatically tells you that we cannot afford to depart one hair's breadth from the rigid truth.

None of us can deny that there is such a disease known as "catarrh." Those who have it, or who have had it, know that it is one of the hardest diseases to cure.

Perhaps the worst thing about catarrh is its prevalence. Almost everyone—especially in a climate like ours—has catarrh in some form or another. That is what has made the "catarrh cure" business so profitable. There are so many thousands of cases of the disease and it is so hard to cure, that the patent medicine manufacturers have reaped a harvest in preparing remedies that appeal to this large class of sufferers.

One of the most serious things about catarrh is that it breaks down the system, so that the sufferer becomes a prey to other diseases. This fact has led the proprietors of so many "catarrh cures" to advertise their remedies as a specific for almost every disease under the sun.

We have ONE catarrh cure that we are willing to say to you: "We know this is all right. Take it home and use it with the full assurance that if it does not cure you, you can bring it back to us and we will promptly refund your money." That catarrh cure is

Rexall

MUCU-TONE

There is no guess work with us on Rexall Mucu-Tone. We know what it is made of.

Not only do we know, but we will give you a copy of the formula.

There is no secret about any Rexall remedy—we make them—one thousand of us leading druggists all over America—in our great co-operative laboratories at Boston, Mass. We own the laboratories, and everything in them, and we operate them just as skillfully as our combined brains and money will let us, and just as honestly as honest men know how.

The Ingredients of Mucu-Tone

Gentian is recognized in medicine as one of the greatest tonics ever discovered. It is the foundation on which Mucu-Tone is built. Gentian combines in high degree the tonic powers of all the known "bitters," with none of the disadvantages applying to them.

Cubebs have long been recognized as a specific in the treatment of all catarrhal conditions. Its action is prompt and its benefits almost invariable. In whatever part of the body the inflamed or diseased condition of the mucous membrane exists, the use of Cubebs has been recommended by the best physicians for many generations.

The combination of these with Glycerine and Sarsaparilla makes Mucu-Tone a remedy that attacks catarrh from every point, gradually restores and rebuilds the diseased tissues to their former health and strength, promotes digestion and creates a normal appetite. Large trial bottle, 50c.

For Sale Only at This Store.

A NEW METHOD OF MOVING PHOSPHATE

Representatives of Cummer Lumber Co. Making Investigation.

WILL USE SUWANNEE RIVER

If Water is of Sufficient Depth to Lighter Phosphate to the Gulf, Where It Will be Transferred to Vessels for Shipment Abread.

An investigation is about to be made by extensive industries which, is satisfactory, will mean the opening up of a new line of transportation on the Suwannee river, from Wannee and other points to the Gulf, and will save the promoters thousands of dollars annually in freight charges.

W. E. Cummer, of the Cummer Lumber Company, Jacksonville, L. R. Chazal, superintendent of the phosphate department, and W. R. Steckert, land commissioner of the Cummer company, left Tuesday night for Cedar Key. These gentlemen will proceed from Cedar Key up the Suwannee river to take soundings with a view of ascertaining the feasibility of transporting phosphate from the mines of the West End down the river, to be loaded on vessels for export The majority of the Cummer mines are in the Newberry district, several miles from the river, which fact will also necessitate the building of a railroad from the various mines to the point of loading on lighters.

Heretofore the products of the mines have been transported either to Jacksonville or Fernandina by rail, giving the railroad companies a long haul and naturally necessitating enormous freight charges.

A careful investigation will be made, and if practical this mode of moving the products of the Cummer mines will be established. It will open up a new line of industry along the Suwannee which is bound to prove of benefit to a large number of people.

Head Crushed by Car.

Atlanta, Jan. 28.—Carlos Cottrell, aged 21, was instantly killed by a Marietta street electric car Sunday morning at 5 o'clock at the corner of Marietta and McMillan streets. Cottrell, it is alleged, had been drinking heavily Saturday night, and, overcome by drink, had gone to sleep with his head on the car rail. The motorman of the car saw him, but was unable to apply the brakes in time to prevent the car striking Cottrell's head, crushing it like an eggshell.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Florida Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Florida readers.

A. Oerting, seaman, of 419 L. street, Pensacola, Fla., tells how to do it. He says: "From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I can strongly recommend them to anyone in need of a good medicine for the kidneys. Kidney complaint and backache caused me suffering at intervals for years. The first or second attack I did not mind, but as time went by they grew worse and at times laid me up. I could hardly walk and it was a difficult matter to straighten up after stooping, while the kidney secretions were irregular and unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. From personal experience I know that this remedy can be depended upon to fulfill the representations made for it."

$150,000,000 IN PENSIONS.

Roll for the Next Fiscal Year Carries Quite an Increase.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Representative Keifer, of Ohio, chairman of the subcommittee on pensions of the house committee on appropriation, has announced informally that that committee has agreed to recommend a pension roll of $150,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909. This will be about $7,000,000 in excess of the present fiscal year. The increase is largely due to the provisions of the McCumber bill, effective in February, 1907, by which the enlargement of pensions in accordance with age and the abolishment of physical examination as a prerequisite to the establishment of pension claims to the establishmentof pension claims on account of the physical disability were brought abqut.

Chairman Keifer has addressed a letter each to the secretary of the interior and the commissioner of pensions inviting them to appear next Monday before the subcommittee and support the recommendation made by them that the number of pension agencies in the United States be reduced from 18 to 9, or to one only at Washington.

VESSELS STORM TOSSED.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 28.—Belated reports to the Maritime Exchange bring information of mishaps to barges with the probable drowning of eleven persons off the New Jersey coast during last week's storm.

The barge Gwennie, from Norfolk for New Bedford, and the barge Fannie, Philadelphia for Boston, broke adrift from the tug that was towing them off Barnegat last Friday morning. The tug arrived at the Delaware breakwater later in the day and on Saturday made a search for the barges.

The Fannie was found and the crew of five men rescued.

The Gwennie could not be located, and it is believed she foundered and that her crew of five went down with her.

The tug F. M. Sully reported that on Friday while trying to make the Delaware breakwater with the barges White Band and New Jersey, a hawser parted and the brages drifted away in the heavy sea. Later the New Jersey was picked up with her crew safe, but the White Band was found sunk about 10 miles off the New Jersey coast. The captain of the tug reports that the crew of four men with two women are doubtless drowned.

GONE TO HIS REWARD.

Death of a Well-Known Colored Citizen of Melrose.

George Stark, or "Uncle George," as he was familiarly called, a respected colored citizen of the east end of Alachua county, died at his home on the 13th inst., having reached the age of 72 years.

He lived about two miles west of Melrose, in what is known as the Stark settlement, where he had acquired a good property and a comfortable home. He was born in South Carolina, but came to this State nearly fifty years ago and has been a continuous resident here all these years.

He leaves a family of six children, five sons and one daughter, all of whom are settled in the immediate neighborhood. The sons have each prosperous farms of their own.

"Uncle George" was a consistent member of the Baptist church. His funeral was attended by a large concourse of people, quite a number of white people being present. The deceased was universally respected by both the white people and his own race.

OUIDA, NOVELIST, DEAD.

Died in Almost Abect Poverty After a Long Illness.

Florence, Italy, Jan. 28.—"Ouida" (Louise de Rameel), the novelist, died Saturday at Viareggio, after an illness extending over a long period.

She died in most abject poverty, her only attendant being an old servant woman, in whose arms she expired. She was completely blind in one eye and the other eye was badly affected through her having suffered so much from exposure and privation.

During the last few months of her life she was compelled at times to sleep in the open air when unable to pay for a night's lodging. The immediate cause of death is said to be asthma, complicated by heart disease.

"Ouida" had lived for a long time past near Florence and her death occurred not far from the beach where the poet, Percy Bysshe Shelley, was drowned. Early last summer attention was called through dispatches to the London papers to "Ouida's" poverty. Marie Corelli started a fund for her benefit and subscriptions were made to several other funds in her behalf, but "Ouida" announced her intention of refusing charity.

HELD UP MAIL WAGON.

Daring Robbery Is Perpetrated at New Orleans, La.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 28.—Daring thieves Sunday night robbed a U. S. mail wagon loaded with incoming mail which had just arrived from Cincinnati and other northern points over the Queen and Crescent houte.

The thieves were reported to have secured tbout $5,000, but the postoffice authorities refuse to make any statement about the amount of the robbery. The wagon, which was heavily screened, and on which rode a driver and his helper, was attacked near some freight cars in the downtown section of the city. The driver and helper, neither of whom were injured, were held by the police on suspicion. At least two out of eleven mail sacks were rifled.

Bridge Whist.

At least 60 per cent of the game of bridge lies in the make. A poor player loses tricks and often the game and rubber by his play, but so many hands occur in which there is really no play that such losses are comparatively unimportant compared with the havoc wrought by an injudicious maker, for constantly his decision is invoked when the safety of the game or its success lies in his judgment of the value of his hand. To choose between hearts or diamonds and no trumps, to select clubs rather than spades, to know when a five card suit is safe and when one of four cards should be chosen, above all to keep an unrelaxing attention upon the state of the score, with its shifting demands—all these are the sterling qualities of a good maker. Once sensible that you are lacking in any such respect you will find your game appreciably strengthened by attention and study.—"Good Bridge."

The Victorian English.

The England which spoke the language which was already dying in the eighteen-sixties was before all things a world of the country. The sights and sounds of nature played a far greater part in the lives of the mass of the people than they do today. This is reflected, for instance, in the way in which birds and animals were spoken of and the names given them. I have myself once or twice heard old people in the country speak of the hen as "Dame Partlet." One is familiar with the phrase from books, of course—it is Chaucer's "Pertolette"—but once or twice as a child I actually heard it. I suppose it would be impossible to hear it anywhere now.—London Outlook.

Where It Doesn't Apply.

"Slow and sure," remarked the man with the quotation habit, "is a good motto."

"But," protested the thoughtful thinker, "there is one thing that can never be slow and sure."

"What's that?" queried the quotation dispenser.

THE LAND OF OPHIR.

Where Was It—In Mashonaland, South Arabia or India?

One of the most interesting and important questions concerning Biblical sites perpetually invites research and persistently evades solution. "Where is the land of Ophir?" Dr. Karl Peters at a public meeting in Berlin declared emphatically that this famous Biblical region is located between the Zambezi and Limpopo rivers. He told his German audience how he has discovered many shafts of ancient gold mines, 500 temples, fortifications and other ruins of Phoenician origin. Dr. Peters affirms that coins unearthed in Mashonaland belong undoubtedly to the time of King Solomon. His opinion is that no other part of Africa could have exported the ivory, silver and precious stones which are recorded in the Bible as coming from Ophir.

Against this theory, founded as it undoubtedly is on very plausible evidence, Bible students are still likely to maintain, on the testimony of Genesis x. 29, that Ophir was a section of South Arabia. Here down to the time of Ezekiel the Phoenicians still landed to procure gold and gems with which those famous sailors and merchants of the ancient world traded in many countries distant from their Syrian shores.

Many erudite writers have attempted to identify Sofala, on the east coast of Africa, with Ophir, while yet others have located it in India. One of the most learned essays written on the subject is from the pen of Professor Hommel, who argued that the ancient land of gold was Arabia Felix.—Homiletic Review.

A Man to Be Envied.

"Do you know," remarked a visitor to a Broadway hosteiry, "I'm always inclined to envy the clerk in a hotel like this. He is always well groomed and smiling, has a wider acquaintance among the wealthy or well to do than I can ever hope to have and is always so aggressively at peace with the world and himself; also he wears, more often than not, a diamond scarfpin or ring which is certainly beyond me. It's a pretty comfortable berth."

Several hours later the hotel clerk reached for his coat and hat. As he left the office he turned to a comrade: "Say, Ned, can you let me have $10 till the first? Rent due at home tomorrow, and I'm shy. Doctor's bills hit me pretty hard this month, and I don't want to lie awake tonight if I can help it."—New York Globe.

An Insidious Danger.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble, as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

COSTLY DRUGS.

A writer in Wissen fuer Alle throws some interesting light on rare and peculiar drugs. Saffron, he points out, would strike an ordinary observer as decidedly expensive at $13 a pound (to change marks into our coinage) until told that it is composed of the central small portions only of the flowers of the crocus, 70,000 of which it takes to make a pound. Attar of roses sells at $112 odd per pound, and it takes 10,000 pounds, or nearly five tons of roses, to obtain one pound of the oil.

Aconitine, extracted from the root of monkshood, is said to be the very strongest poison extant, the dose being one six-hundredth of a grain. It is sold at the rate of $108 per ounce.

Turning from the vegetable to the animal world in search of rare drugs, the writer refers to the musk of the Asiatic deer, which at $24 to $30 an ounce must be a prize to the wily hunter. In some of the tropical seas a floating, sweet smelling mass of ambergris is met with worth at present $30 per ounce, or $480 per pound in the market. The ambergris is said to be the diseased biliary product of the whale.
